Career Focus	Nichols Professional Development Seminar (PDS) Program, the first of its kind in the United States, is a four-year program of 1-credit courses. Coursework logically builds on the prior year, with first-year students getting help with the transition to college; second-year students exploring majors and internship opportunities; third-year students refining their professional skills (e.g., interviewing, writing resumes and developing portfolios); and fourth-year students launching successful careers.
Special Opportunities	Internships, Study Abroad (Regents College, London), Semester at Sea, A to B Business Program (with selected Mass. community colleges) and other global partnerships with the European University (nine locations worldwide) and the EC Language School in Boston.
Accreditation	New England Association of Schools and Colleges, Inc. International Assembly for Collegiate Business Education
