Nichols College

Learn. Lead. Succeed.

Principals, Headmasters, and Guidance Directors:

Do you know of a student who exemplifies leadership beyond the classroom?

Nominate a student for the Nichols College 6th Annual New England Principal's Leadership Award.

One nominated student from each participating school throughout New England will receive a $72,000 Nichols College scholarship. The award will be dispersed in four amounts of $18,000 to attend Nichols College beginning the 2018-2019 academic year.

The nominated student from your school should demonstrate academic promise, ambition, and leadership in your school and community. The student should also meet the following criteria:

- Have an unweighted cumulative GPA between 2.5 and 3.5
- At least a 800 two-way SAT (verbal and math)
- Exemplary leadership and involvement in your school and community

Please complete the enclosed nomination form and forward along with a transcript including the first quarter grades (if available) of the student's senior year and latest SAT or ACT scores to:

Julianne Szlyk
Admissions and Communications Coordinator
